Ballet Academy East's Young Men's Program delivers focused training, performance opportunities and one-on-one mentoring to help young men achieve success in the dance world. BAE's proven syllabus creates technically strong, artistically expressive dancers who adapt easily to the broad range of styles required of today's professionals. Students are taught by the school's acclaimed faculty, under the guidance of Artistic Director Darla Hoover, and work regularly with in-demand guest artists from across New York City and around the world. Enrollment in the Pre-Professional Division is by audition. Students attend classes twice weekly, one class of all boys and the other coed. All classes feature live piano accompaniment. Ballet Academy East is accredited by the federal government to accept foreign students.
